Janie as Mentor

It was a momentous day when meeting Chez Raġiniak at the National Speakers Association meeting. I saw the spark, the potential and drive of this fine man. I am blessed to have become a mentor and a friend. He has determination and great talent. His book "My Escape to Freedom" tells the story of his escape from communist Poland in 1985 and his life in America. Chez is a successful businessman, father, poet and speaker. What a treasure for all of us to hear! You may contact Chez directly: www.1moment.us • 651 775 4294 • chez@1moment.us

Keynotes & Presentations

$3500 - $5000

(usually 3 hours or less)

- Multiple presentations, Breakout sessions, Emcee work. Usually on same day as presentation with autographing time built in between.
- Fees can be reduced for charitable organizations, religious celebrations or events tied in with "The Littlest Christmas Tree" at holiday time (teas, retreats, reflection days, etc).
- Fund Raising Events also arranged with use of books and autographing. Our fees have always been affordable with the profession of speaking.
- Travel above the presentation fee. Local speaking can be negotiated both in the Minneapolis area during winter and in the Fox River Valley area (Green Bay, Appleton, Oshkosh, Fond Du Lac, Milwaukee) Wisconsin from May through September.

Notes to Meeting Planners

- Because of the enormous success of "The Littlest Christmas Tree" book, and other books and items I have created, some changes have been made in what used to be a "speaking only" venue. In other words, I am a bit more of a celebrity than I used to be and people want to hug me, meet me, have me sign books and be available to them before and after the actual speech.
- On your part it requires a well lit two table space to have sparkle wrapped books and CD's and be available for autographing. This set up needs to allow me to end the speech and get to it before the crowd exits.
- I will ship and bring all items necessary, but you will need to assist me with folks coming and going. It is not a registration type situation. It is a very busy and often a rushing frolic of signing and of fun (Lunch at McDonald's style).
- Books can also be provided for your attendees, signed and packaged, discounted and sent for your special guests.
- Receptions are also held and books are signed and given to those special folks.
